1792 U.S. Disme. Thin planchet. In silver
A coin of the most excessive rarity.
This coin is the specimen on thin planchet and this identical coin was #1 in the great Parmelee Sale. The only specimen ever likely to come on the market. As described in that sale, some initials have been removed. This is the specimen weighing 40 grains mentioned by Crosby and is believed to be the only specimen known. $1000.00 oexmc

1792 U.S. Disme. Thick planchet. In silver.
A coin of the most excessive rarity. This is the thick planchet variety mentioned by Crosby as weighing 57 grains and is believed to be the only specimen known. Unfortunately, the date was removed at some time in the past, otherwise, this would be a $2000.00 coin.
Very fine except for the removal of the date.
